1. The information we will ask you for

It is our obligation to make sure that any credit we assist you to obtain is in your best interests. We will need to ask you some detailed questions to make this assessment and our recommendation, in fact, the law requires us to:

- make reasonable enquiries about your borrowing objectives and requirements;
- make reasonable enquiries about your financial situation to understand your capacity to repay the loan;
- take reasonable steps to verify the details of your financial situation.

Credit will be viewed as unsuitable if it is likely that you could not afford to repay the loan or lease or repay it only with substantial hardship. It will also be viewed as unsuitable if the loan or lease will not meet your borrowing objectives and/or requirements.

It is therefore very important that the information you provide to us is accurate and complete.

You can ask for a copy of our assessment at any time within seven years of us assisting you with your credit application.

2. We respect your privacy

Mortgage Choice will need to collect personal information about you to provide you with our broking and related services. By providing us with your personal information, you agree that we may collect, use it and disclose it as specified below.

How information is collected from you

We (or our Credit Representatives on our behalf) will collect your information directly from you whenever possible, like from enquiries we make of you when you seek credit assistance from us or our Credit Representatives. How information is collected from other sources

Sometimes we will collect information about you from other sources, including our Credit Representatives, as the Privacy Act 1998 permits. We will do this only if it's reasonably necessary to do so, for example, where:

- we collect information from third parties about a loan or lease in relation to which you seek our services; or
- we exchange information with your legal or financial advisers or other representatives.

When the law authorises or requires collection of information

Some laws may require us to collect personal information about you. For example, we may require your information to verify your identity under Australian Anti-Money Laundering law.

- telling you about other suppliers, with whom we have arrangements, that supply goods or services that may be of interest to you;
- preventing or investigating any fraud or crime or any suspected fraud or crime;

3. Advice from other related experts

Our Mortgage Brokers are unable to provide any property, financial or legal advice. We would strongly recommend obtaining independent legal advice before you enter into any finance or property contract.

4. How do Mortgage Choice brokers get paid?

Typically, there is no charge for our home loan service as we are paid by the lender once the loan settles. This means you can tap into your broker's expertise at no charge and save yourself time and hassle looking for the right home loan option. The commission received by Mortgage Choice and your broker will be provided in the Loan Choices Document that we will provide to you before you apply for finance.

In some limited circumstances, your broker may charge you a fee for their services. If a fee is to be charged, this will be disclosed to you in the form of a quote, before the provision of any credit assistance.

Mortgage Choice brokers do not receive bonus commissions or volume bonus payments from the lenders that provide finance for our customers. Your brokers' licensee may receive additional commissions or bonuses from some finance providers relating to the quality of the service we provide to our customers. Such payments are dependent upon a number of factors and cannot be quantified at this time.

You may need to pay the finance provider's application, valuation, legal and other fees.

5. We may pay a fee for a referral

Referrals are sometimes sourced by us and our representatives from real estate agents, accountants, solicitors and other businesses. We may pay a fee to these businesses for referring you to us. These are not fees payable by you. Any referral fee or commission paid in relation to your referral will be disclosed in the Loan Choices document that will be given to you before applying for finance.

6. Resolving any problems

We hope that you are delighted with our services. However, if you have any complaints, you can raise these directly with the representative with whom you are dealing. If you are not satisfied with the response that you receive, you may contact our Compliance team, emailing customerservice@mortgagechoice.com.au, by telephoning 13 77 62, or writing to PO Box 457 North Sydney NSW 2059.

When we receive a complaint, we attempt to resolve it as quickly as possible, subject to a full investigation of all the circumstances involved.

7. If we are unable to resolve your problem satisfactorily

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of your complaint, you may refer the matter to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (1800 931 678) an ASIC-approved External Dispute Resolution service. External dispute resolution is a service provided at no cost to you, which gives you access to an independent mechanism for the resolution of specific complaints or disputes.

You can obtain further details about our dispute resolution procedures on request.
